Community Project: Service and Action Year 3 Exit Task

Name(s):	November 2018
FORMAL PROPOSAL:
 Outline your project goal / Explain what you intend to do. Also, ident / inspired you to focus your community service and action in this area? 	ify what interested you
Special Notes from the Projects Guide:
 Goal is defined as a NEED – i.e., a condition or situation in which sor wanted; a duty or obligation, or a lack of something requisite, The community in need may be local, national, virtual or global The goal should be appropriately challenging.

Justify your choice.

2. Reflect on the goal and decide if it is a direct, indirect, advocacy or research based activity.

Note: It is possible to create a project that falls into more than one category.

Special Notes from the Projects Guide:

- Direct service interaction involves people, the environment or animals
- Indirect Service students do not see the recipients, but know their actions will benefit the community or environment
- Advocacy students speak on behalf of a cause or concern to promote action on an issue of public interest

4. Create a rough timeline for your project with a list of resources/people that you think you will need throughout.
e.g., November – approval; December – collect background research on topic; make contact with volunteer organization and set up initial interview / dates to volunteer January – connect with supervisor to review progress; complete section A of the presentation outline; find video / pics to support my research; visit/action # 2 Etc
5. What platform will you be using for a process journal (duotang, folder, digital)?
6. The project must be presented in an oral format. What multi-media supports – if any – will you be incorporating into your communication of learning?
7. This is not a question FYI - Approaches to Learning, Global Context and Key Concept selection will occur at your first supervisor meeting. A project question will be developed then also.
